

Current classes at the Merciful Heart of Jesus Farm

Understanding Others' Faults and Trauma (and Mine, too!)

This class meets every other Thursday of the month; at this time, we are not taking new participants for this class.

Spiritual, catechetical and emotional formation in accord with Catholic teaching aimed towards processing your own emotions and learning to heal your own trauma through prayer.

Basic Horse Safety and Positive Reinforcement

This class meets on Saturday afternoons; at this time, we are not taking new participants for this class.

Participants learn how to handle and train horses with positive reinforcement. This type of training is therapy as it changes how a person thinks and relates with other creatures and people. It increases coordination and awareness of others' emotional state and needs. It is also a lot of fun.
